

Christmas in the French Alps

December 21-27, 2025

Enjoy exclusive use of a mountain chalet and let your hosts pamper you during this festive season. No tree will be left bare of decorations!

- ✓ Day 1- Transfer from the train station to the chalet, settle in with an afternoon tea and mulled wine in front of the fire. Welcome drinks and a mise en bouche will be served in the bar to discuss the week ahead. A Fondue Savoyard and all the trimmings will be served in the dining room.
- ✓ Day 2- Breakfast will be available at a time that suits you. In the morning, make a trip into the valley to purchase fresh foods from the farmers' market - Oysters, Salmon, Poultry, Foie Gras, Fruit and Veg. Lunch will be back at the house or a picnic, weather permitting. The afternoon will be spent together in the kitchen cooking: festive music, roaring fire, and delicious foods that will be enjoyed together.
- ✓ Day 3- Breakfast then head to the Christmas markets in Annecy, where you will have a full day to explore this beautiful town. Head back to the chalet, then evening pre-dinner drinks will be served by the fire, followed by a 3-course meal.
- ✓ Day 4- Breakfast, followed by a special day. Christmas Eve is when the French celebrate - we will follow suit. Morning cooking class, discovering and creating all the things the French love to eat over the festive period. Lunch will be served in the dining room by the fire. Afternoon adventures in the snow - snowshoeing through the forest with your hosts, mulled wine, hot chocolate, pastries, and cakes will be shared up on the mountain. Evening celebrations start with bubbles and mouth watering appetizers, this theme will continue with a 3 course meal with matching local wines.
- ✓ Day 5- Christmas Day! This will be discussed on the first evening, and together you will decide how to celebrate. Breakfast, lunch, dinner / Long Christmas brunch / Late breakfast - early evening Christmas meal. This is the day to relax and choose fully what you wish to do - church visit, snow shoeing, sledding, reading in front of the fire, toasting marshmallows in the snow..... Bubbles and food in abundance, of course!
- ✓ Day 6- Boxing day breakfast (if you still have space). Mid morning meet in the kitchen and become creative with leftovers followed by lunch. Afternoon is about soaking it up at the natural thermal springs (optional) or snow shoeing up high. Afternoon tea by the fire - mulled wine, hot chocolate and one last supper with an array of goodness.
- ✓ Day 7- Breakfast - departure transfer to the train station.
